

Identity Management Video

Learn more about Identity Management with this six minute video

Companies are struggling with time consuming manual user administration processes and increasing costs of provisioning access to resources and assets across multiple systems, devices and applications. Novell Identity Manager 3 enables the automation of complex provisioning processes to provide immediate access to resources across you business.

For more information on identity management and how Novell can help you, please click on the image below